LRFA Notice of Information Practices and Privacy Statement

How We Collect Information About You

LRFA and its employees collect data through a variety of means including but not necessarily limited to letters, phone calls, emails, voicemails, and from the submission of applications that are either required by law or necessary to process applications or other requests for assistance through our organization.

What We Do Not Do with Your Information:

Information about your financial situation and medical conditions and care that you provide to us in writing, via email, on the phone (including information left on voicemails), contained in, or attached to applications, or directly or indirectly given to us, is held in strictest confidence.

We do not give out, exchange, barter, rent, sell, lend, or disseminate any information about applicants or members who apply for or receive our services that are considered patient confidential or restricted by law.

How We Do Use Your Information:

Information is only used as is reasonably necessary to process your application or to provide you with services which may require communication between LRFA and health care providers, medical product or service providers, pharmacies, insurance companies, and other providers necessary to verify your medical information is accurate and determine the type of medical supplies or health care services you need. This is including, but not limited to, or to obtain or purchase any type of medical supplies, devices, medications, or insurance.

If you apply or attempt to apply to receive services or benefit plans through us and provide information with the intent or purpose of fraud or that results in either an actual crime of fraud for any reason including willful or un-willful acts of negligence whether intended or not, or in any way demonstrates or indicates attempted fraud, your non-medical information can be given to legal authorities including police, investigators, courts, and/or attorneys or other legal professionals, as well as any other information as permitted by law.

Limited Right to Use Non-Identifying Personal Information from Forms, Letters, Notes, and Other Sources:

Any pictures, stories, letters, correspondence, or thank you notes sent to us become the exclusive property of LRFA. We reserve the right to use non-identifying information about our members for fundraising and promotional purposes that are directly related to our mission. You may specifically request that NO information be used whatsoever for promotional purposes, but you must identify any requested restrictions in writing. We respect your right to privacy and assure you no identifying information or photos that you send to us will be publicly used without your direct or indirect consent.
